JOINT MOTION BY APPELLANTS AND CERTAIN
DEFENDANTS-APPELLEES FOR CONSOLIDATION OF APPEALS AND FOR RELATED CASE MANAGEMENT RELIEF

Irving H. Picard, the Trustee (“Trustee”) appointed for the liquidation of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (“Madoff Securities” or “BLMIS”), and Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”), Appellants in the above appeals (“Appeals”),¹ and the undersigned Defendants-Appellees, each of whom is a party to one or more of the Appeals (collectively with the Appellants, the “Joint Movants”), jointly move for (1) consolidation of the Appeals into a single master appeal under a single master docket and caption (“Consolidated Appeal,” as further defined below) pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 3(b)(2), and (2) certain other case management relief that the Court may grant pursuant to its inherent powers to control its docket. Because this Motion seeks consolidation and case management relief affecting three sets of Appeals, the motion is filed in each of Case Nos. 12-2497, -2557 and -3422 (into which certain other appeals have already been administratively consolidated by the court).

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

These Appeals involve approximately 616 lawsuits commenced by the Trustee which seek to avoid transfers made by Madoff Securities to retail customers (and, in some cases, subsequent transferees of those customers) from whom the Trustee seeks to recover certain amounts alleged to have been transferred by Madoff Securities, and against whom the Trustee does not allege any lack of good faith (collectively, the “Defendants-Appellees”). The Trustee and SIPC filed the Appeals from judgments of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Hon. Jed S. Rakoff, U.S.D.J.) (“District Court”) which applied Section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code to dismiss all of the Trustee’s avoidance claims except those challenging actual fraudulent transfers made within the two years preceding commencement of the Madoff Securities liquidation under the Securities Investor Protection Act.

The issues on appeal stated by the Trustee in Addendum B to his Civil Appeal Pre-Argument Statement (Form C) filed in all of the Appeals, are as follows (collectively, the “Section 546(e) Issues”):

1. Whether section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) should be applied to the Trustee’s lawsuits against the various defendants named herein, including:

A. Whether section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code precludes a SIPA Trustee from recovering fictitious profits and preferences in cases where such fictitious profits and preferences were not the product of trading activity, but instead were predicated upon a fraud, such as in a Ponzi scheme;

B. Whether defendants’ customer account agreements with BLMIS constitute “securities contracts” under sections 546(e) and 741(7) of the Bankruptcy Code;

C. Whether defendants’ withdrawal of preferential transfers and/or fictitious profits from their BLMIS customer accounts constituted transfers “in connection with a securities contract” under sections 546(e) and 741(7) of the Bankruptcy Code;

D. Whether defendants’ withdrawal of preferential transfers and/or fictitious profits from their BLMIS customer accounts constituted transfers that were “settlement payments” under sections 546(e) and 741(8) of the Bankruptcy Code;

E. Whether defendants’ customer account agreements with BLMIS constitute “master agreements” under section 741(7)(A)(x) of the Bankruptcy Code;

F. Whether defendants’ customer account agreements with BLMIS constitute “security agreements” under section 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code; and

G. Whether the application of section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code to prevent a SIPA trustee from recovering preferences and fictitious profits from a decades-long Ponzi scheme comports with the purpose and legislative history of section 546(e).

2. Whether a defendant's invocation of a defense under section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code mandates withdrawal of the reference to Bankruptcy Court under 28 U.S.C. § 157(d).

E.g., Case No. 12-2557, ECF No. 33-6 (2d Cir. July 5, 2012). (The defendant- movants dispute the Trustee's characterization of, and the propriety of, the issues, but will defer responding until an appropriate stage of the proceedings.)

The commonality of the Section 546(e) Issues across all of the cases warrants consolidation to facilitate their determination in a single, master appellate proceeding. Such treatment will foster judicial economy, avoid duplication of effort, minimize expense and confusion among the parties and attorneys interested in its disposition, and facilitate coordinated briefing and communication by and among the appellees. Joint Movants, therefore, request that the Court grant the following relief, substantially as proposed in the accompanying form of proposed order attached as Exhibit A:

- (i) Pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 3(b)(2), Case Nos. 12-2497, -2500, -2557, -2616, -3422, -3440, -3582 and -3585 should be consolidated with and under the appeal filed by the Trustee from the judgment entered by the District Court in the Master Proceeding (as defined below) – which bears Case No. 12-2557 in this Court (the “Consolidated Appeal”) – and the caption should be revised appropriately, as proposed in Exhibit A;
- (ii) All Defendants-Appellees who are parties to the appeals and are listed in Exhibit B accompanying this motion should be added as parties to the Consolidated Appeal;
- (iii) The briefing schedule for the Consolidated Appeal should be the schedule currently set by order of this Court entered in Case No. 12-2557 on September 6, 2012 (ECF No. 90);
- (iv) The District Court dockets and their contents in the underlying actions may be utilized to the extent that this Court deems the same to be pertinent and necessary for purposes of the Consolidated Appeal even if such parts of the record are not included in the appendix, pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 30(a)(2);
- (v) To minimize duplication and burden to the Court in connection with the administration and disposition of the Consolidated Appeal: (i) the number of briefs to be filed on behalf of the appellees in the Consolidated Appeal should be limited to a total sixteen;² and (ii) a liaison committee of counsel for Defendants-Appellees should be organized to facilitate communications among appellees' counsel in the actions covered by the Consolidated Appeal (the "Liaison Committee") and, to the extent practicable, to minimize the number of notices of appearance required to be filed, provided that the members of the Liaison Committee would not be deemed to represent any parties other than their respective clients, and the Liaison Committee and its members would not owe any duties of any kind or nature either to any Defendants-Appellees (other than a member's own client(s)) or the attorneys for any other Defendants-Appellees; and further provided that all communications and documents (including drafts of motions or briefs) exchanged between and among the members of the Liaison Committee and any of the Defendants-Appellees and/or their respective attorneys will be deemed to be privileged communications and/or work product, as the case may be, subject to a joint interest privilege; and

- (vi) No counsel for any Defendants-Appellees in any Decided Action, Withdrawn 546(e) Action, Eligible Action or Inadvertently Omitted Action (each as defined below), and no pro se party in any such action, would be prohibited from filing papers in the Consolidated Appeal (subject to the limitation established by this Order on the number of appellees' briefs permitted to be filed). For purposes of receiving a document from counsel for a party who has not formally appeared in the Consolidated Appeal or from a pro se party: (i) such papers should be submitted to the Court only through its "e-box" (agencycases@ca2.uscourts.gov) pursuant to Second Circuit Court Rule 25.2, and all such papers shall bear the caption of the Consolidated Appeal; and (ii) any attorney filing such papers should comply with the Rules of this Court regarding the admission of attorneys to practice before it and file a notice of appearance in the Consolidated Appeal at the same time as the first filing of papers by such attorney in the Consolidated Appeal, through the Court's e-box.

This motion results from discussions in recent months between a "working group" of counsel who represent the moving Defendants-Appellees, on one hand, and both of the appellants' counsel, on the other hand. In addition, counsel for the Joint Movants engaged in several consultations with the Clerk of the Second Circuit in an effort to develop case management arrangements that would, in addition to consolidation of the Appeals, facilitate administrative efficiencies for the Court without compromising the substantive rights of any parties.

In accordance with Second Circuit Court Rule 27.1(b), the Joint Movants, through the Trustee's counsel, provided copies of the motion and proposed order to all defense counsel and any pro se Defendants-Appellees in the actions listed on Exhibit B, so as to solicit their consent to the motion. The Joint Movants believe that a considerable number of those counsel and parties support, or will not oppose, the motion and the requested relief.³

No prior motion for this relief has been filed in any of the Appeals.

FACTUAL BASIS FOR THE REQUESTED RELIEF

1. The Appeals all stem from adversary proceedings brought by the Trustee in the substantively consolidated liquidation proceedings for Madoff Securities and Bernard L. Madoff pending under Adv. Proc. No. 08-1789 (BRL) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court"), under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78aaa, et seq. ("SIPA").⁴

2. In and before December 2010, the Trustee commenced more than 1,000

³ As explained below, although the determinations of the District Court at issue in Case No. 12-2557 arise from motions to dismiss made by the Defendants-Appellees-Appellants in four groups of "Decided Actions" defined below, the District Court subsequently consolidated those actions and several hundred other lawsuits for purposes of the entry of judgment pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Not all of the Defendants-Appellees and counsel in those other actions were either listed by the Circuit Court as parties or counsel in Case No. 12-2557; accordingly, among other things, this motion is designed to clarify the participation of those parties and the Court's management of the Consolidated Appeal as it affects those parties.

⁴ The Court may take judicial notice of the dockets and court papers referenced in this Motion. Fed. R. Evid. 201.

adversary proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court in which his complaints or amended complaints asserted claims for avoidance of: (1) preferences under Section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) actual fraudulent transfers under Section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code; (3) constructive fraudulent transfers under Section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code; and/or (4) actual and constructive fraudulent conveyances under provisions of the New York Debtor & Creditor Law (“N.Y.D.C.L.”) incorporated by Section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Appeals arise from the dismissal by the District Court of the claims described in clauses (1), (3) and (4) above, as asserted in the Trustee’s complaints and amended complaints against defendant-transferees whom the Trustee has not alleged to have lacked good faith.

3. As is further explained below, through the District Court’s certification of the entry of a consolidated judgment pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the ruling applies to more than 600 actions in which the reference was withdrawn or deemed withdrawn by order of the District Court.

The Master District Court Proceeding

4. In late 2011 and early 2012, numerous Defendants-Appellees filed motions for withdrawal of the reference in hundreds of the Trustee’s avoidance actions. By order entered on April 13, 2012, the District Court opened a master proceeding on its docket under the caption Securities Investor Protection Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (In re Madoff Securities), S.D.N.Y. No. 12-mc-0115 (JSR), for the purpose of centralizing the filing of all matters relating to Madoff Securities previously or thereafter assigned to Judge Rakoff (the “Master Proceeding”). Master Proceeding, ECF No. 1.

The Decided Actions

5. In 2011, Defendants-Appellees in four groups of lawsuits totaling approximately 80 avoidance actions in which the reference had been withdrawn (collectively, the “Decided Actions”), moved the District Court to dismiss the complaints or amended complaints on various grounds including the Section 546(e) Issues. The Defendants-Appellees in the Decided Actions sought, among other things, dismissal of the Trustee’s claims to the extent that they were barred by operation of the safe harbor established by Section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. The motions were fully briefed and argued under the captions Picard v. Greiff, S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-3775 (JSR), Picard v. Blumenthal, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-4293 (JSR), Picard v. Goldman, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-4959 (JSR), and Picard v. Hein, S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-4936 (JSR).⁵ None of the Trustee’s claims in the Decided Actions challenged the good faith of the initial or subsequent transferee(s) named as Defendants-Appellees.

6. On April 27, 2012, the District Court entered a short-form Order in the Master Proceeding (the “Dismissal Order”) indicating all of the Trustee’s avoidance claims were barred by application of Section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code except for the two-year actual fraudulent transfer claims. Master Proceeding, ECF No. 57. On April 30, 2012, the District Court issued an Opinion and Order in the Master Proceeding that detailed the legal bases for the Dismissal Order. Sec. Investor Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC (In re Madoff Sec.), __ F. Supp. 2d __, 2012 WL 1505349 (S.D.N.Y. May 1, 2012) (the “Opinion”).

7. On May 15, 2012, the District Court entered a Supplemental Opinion and Order in the Master Proceeding to make explicit that Section 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code applies to the Trustee's claims for avoidance and recovery of preferential transfers under Section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code. Master Proceeding, ECF No. 101 ("Supplemental Opinion").

8. The claims dismissed by the Dismissal Order, Opinion and Supplemental Opinion were those asserted by the Trustee that sought avoidance of: (1) preferences under Section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) constructive fraudulent transfers under Section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code; and/or (3) actual and constructive fraudulent conveyances under provisions of the N.Y.D.C.L. incorporated by Section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, the "Dismissed Claims"). The Dismissal Order did not dismiss claims alleged by the Trustee for avoidance and recovery of two-year actual fraudulent transfers under Sections 548(a)(1)(A) and 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Withdrawn 546(e) Actions

9. On February 29, 2012, prior to issuing its decision in the Decided Actions, the District Court entered an order withdrawing the reference in several other groups of actions. See Picard v. Avellino, 469 B.R. 408 (S.D.N.Y. 2012). Included among those cases were two groups of actions – under the captions Picard v. Elins Family Trust, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-4772 (JSR)⁶ and Picard v. M&B Weiss Family Limited Partnership, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-6244 (JSR) – in which the Trustee's claims were substantively identical to the Dismissed Claims, and in which Trustee did not allege a lack of good faith by the defendant-transferees (collectively, the "Withdrawn 546(e) Actions").⁷ Although the District Court

⁶ The Elins group of Withdrawn 546(e) Actions was formally consolidated by an order of the District Court.

scheduled briefing and oral argument in the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions on motions made by the defendants in those cases to dismiss based on, among other grounds, the application of Section 546(e) to the transfers at issue, the District Court subsequently suspended briefing and argument in the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions in light of its deliberations on the motions to dismiss in the Decided Actions.⁸

The Eligible Actions

10. In addition to the Decided Actions and the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions, there remained a substantial number of similar avoidance actions commenced by the Trustee (collectively, the “Eligible Actions”) in which motions to withdraw the reference had been filed but the District Court had not yet entered an order determining such motions as of the time of its decision on the motions to dismiss the Decided Actions. The Trustee’s claims in the Eligible Actions did not allege a lack of good faith by the defendant-transferees.

The District Court’s Consolidation Order in the Master Proceeding

11. To facilitate a prompt, coordinated, single appeal from the ruling in the Decided Actions, to include within the scope of such appeal the application of the Section 546(e) Issues to the substantively identical claims alleged in the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions and the Eligible Actions, and with the consent of the affected parties, on May 16, 2012, the District Court entered a Consent Order Granting Certification Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) for Entry of Final Judgment Dismissing Certain Claims and Actions (the “Consolidation Order”). Master Proceeding, ECF No. 109. The Consolidation Order was also entered on the Proceeding. Briefing and oral argument, which are to be contemplated in November 2012, are intended to address the application of Section 546(e) to those defendants. See Paragraph 16 below regarding the coordination of briefing in several of the Appeals with the schedule of proceedings before Judge Rakoff in the Bad Faith Cases.

dockets of each of the Decided Actions, the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions, and the Eligible Actions. See, e.g., Picard v. Blumenthal, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-4293 (JSR), ECF No. 31; Picard v. Elins Family Trust et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-4772 (JSR), ECF No. 21; Picard v. United Congregation Mesora, S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-9445 (JSR), ECF No. 8.

12. The Consolidation Order consolidated all of the Decided Actions, Withdrawn 546(e) Actions and Eligible Actions solely with respect to and for the purpose of entry of a final judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) in favor of the consolidated Defendants-Appellees on the Dismissed Claims. The Consolidation Order provided for the final judgment to be entered in the docket of one of the Decided Actions, captioned Picard v. Ida Fishman Revocable Trust, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-7603 (JSR) (the “Fishman Action”):

A single Rule 54(b) judgment shall be entered in the Fishman Action, which . . . shall govern all of the Decided Actions, the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions and the Eligible Actions. The Rule 54(b) Judgment shall be entered only in the Fishman Action

The Rule 54(b) Judgment and the Trustee’s notice of appeal shall be deemed entered in all of the Eligible Actions, Decided Actions and the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions without further notice or action.

See Consolidation Order, ¶¶ 10, 12. On the same day that the Consolidation Order was entered on the docket of the Master Proceeding, the Consolidation Order was entered on the docket of the Fishman Action. . The Consolidation Order also was entered on the docket in each of the Decided Actions, the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions and the Eligible Actions:

The Initial Rule 54(b) Judgments Affecting the Decided Actions, Withdrawn 546(e) Actions and Eligible Actions

13. On May 23, 2012, the District Court entered a final judgment pursuant to the Consolidation Order on the docket in both the Master Proceeding and the Fishman Action (the “Fishman Judgment”). Picard v. Ida Fishman Revocable Trust, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-7603 (JSR), ECF No. 14; Master Proceeding, ECF No. 124.

14. On May 30, 2012 and June 6, 2012, the District Court entered orders in the Master Proceeding adding certain actions to the Consolidation Order as Eligible Actions, nunc pro tunc (the “Stipulated Matters”). See Stipulation and Order, Master Proceeding, ECF No. 153; Stipulation and Order, Picard v. Koota, S.D.N.Y. No. 12-cv-2154 (JSR), ECF No. 5; Stipulation and Order, Master Proceeding, ECF No. 158; Stipulation and Order, Picard v. Just Empire, LLC, S.D.N.Y. No. 12-cv-2280 (JSR), ECF No. 6; Picard v. Miscork Corp., S.D.N.Y. No. 12-cv-2289 (JSR), ECF No. 7.

15. On June 21, 2012, the Trustee and SIPC each filed Notices of Appeal in the Fishman Action and the Master Proceeding. Picard v. Ida Fishman Revocable Trust, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-7603 (JSR), ECF Nos. 17, 18; Master Proceeding, ECF Nos. 190, 191. On or about June 21, 2012, this Court opened Appeal Nos. 12-2497 and 12-2557 in relation to the Notices of Appeal filed by the Trustee (the “Trustee Matters”). On or about June 21, 2012, this Court opened Appeal Nos. 12-2500 and 12-2616 in relation to the Notices of Appeal filed by SIPC (the “SIPC Matters”). This Court, sua sponte, consolidated Case Nos. 12-2497 and 12-2500 under Case No. 12-2497 (the “Fishman Appeal”) and Case Nos. 12-2557 and 12-2616 under Case No. 12-2557 (the “Master Proceeding Appeal”).

16. By orders entered by this Court in September 2012 (Case No. 12-2557, ECF No. 90 (2d Cir. Sept. 6, 2012); Case No. 12-2497, ECF No. 73 (2d Cir. Sept. 14, 2012)), the time for the Trustee and SIPC to submit their appellants' briefs in those appeals was extended until the later of December 13, 2012 or 30 days after Judge Rakoff rules on the Section 546(e) issues in the Bad Faith Cases (see note 6 above). In his motion for the extension of the briefing schedule pending the District Court's determination of those issues, the Trustee represented to this Court that he did not anticipate seeking consolidation of these appeals with any appeals that may lie as of right or by leave of court in the Bad Faith Cases. See, e.g., Case No. 12-2557, ECF No. 75-3, at ¶ 11 n.5 (2d Cir. Sept. 6, 2012).

The Rule 54(b) Judgments Affecting the Inadvertently Omitted Actions

17. In addition to the Decided Actions, the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions, the Eligible Actions and the Stipulated Matters, a number of other adversary proceedings commenced by the Trustee were inadvertently omitted from the original Consolidation Order (the "Inadvertently Omitted Actions"). In those actions, like the cases addressed by the Consolidation Order: (1) the Trustee asserted claims for avoidance and recovery that were substantively identical to the Dismissed Claims; (2) the Defendants-Appellees moved to withdraw the reference with regard to Section 546(e) but the District Court had not yet entered an order determining the motion for withdrawal of the reference; and (3) none of the Trustee's claims challenged the good faith of the initial or subsequent transferee(s) named as Defendants-Appellees.

18. In order to facilitate a prompt, coordinated, single appeal from the dismissal of claims pursuant to the Fishman Judgment, and to include within the scope of such appeal the Inadvertently Omitted Actions, and with the consent of all of the parties to the Inadvertently

Omitted Actions, on July 27, 2012, the District Court entered a Consent Order Granting Certification Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) for Entry of Final Judgment Dismissing Certain Claims pertaining to the Inadvertently Omitted Actions (the “Blue Star Consolidation Order”). Master Proceeding, ECF No. 255.

19. Under the Blue Star Consolidation Order, the District Court consolidated all of the Inadvertently Omitted Actions solely with respect to and for the purpose of entry of final judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) in favor of the consolidated Defendants-Appellees on the Dismissed Claims (the “Blue Star 54(b) Judgment,” and together with the Fishman 54(b) Judgment, the “Rule 54(b) Judgments”), with the judgment to be entered in the docket of one of the Inadvertently Omitted Actions, captioned Picard v. Blue Star Investors, LLC, et al., S.D.N.Y. No. 11-cv-9059 (JSR) (the “Blue Star Action”). On the same day the Blue Star Consolidation Order was entered in the docket of the Master Proceeding, the Blue Star Consolidation Order was entered in the docket of the Blue Star Action. Master Proceeding, ECF No. 255, Blue Star Action, ECF No. 14.

20. On July 27, 2012, the Blue Star 54(b) Judgment was entered in the Blue Star Action, and on July 30, 2012 the Blue Star 54(b) Judgment was entered in the Master Proceeding. Master Proceeding, ECF No. 262, Blue Star Action, ECF No. 15.

21. On August 13, 2012, the Trustee and SIPC each filed Notices of Appeal in the Blue Star Action and the Master Proceeding (Blue Star Action, ECF Nos. 18-19; Master Proceeding, ECF Nos. 298-99) (hereinafter referred to collectively with the previously filed Notices of Appeal in the Fishman Action and the Master Proceeding as the “Notices of Appeal”).

22. On or about August 27, 2010 and September 10, 2012, this Court opened Case

Nos. 12-3440 and 12-3585 in relation to the Notices of Appeal filed by the Trustee in the Master Proceeding and the Blue Star Action (the “Additional Trustee Matters”). On or about September 10, 2012, this Court opened Case Nos. 12-3422 and 12-3582 in relation to the Notices of Appeal filed by SIPC in the Master Proceeding and the Blue Star Action (the “Additional SIPC Matters”). This Court, sua sponte, consolidated Case Nos. 12-3422, 12-3440, 12-3582 and 12-3585 under Case No. 12-3422 (the “Blue Star Appeal”).

23. By orders entered by this Court in Case Nos. 12-3422, 12-3440, 12-3582 and 12-3585, the time for the Trustee and SIPC to submit their appellants’ briefs in the Blue Star Appeal is currently November 26, 2012. If this motion is granted, the briefing schedule for the Consolidated Appeal, which will include the Blue Star Appeal, should be amended to be the later of December 13, 2012 or 30 days after Judge Rakoff rules on the Section 546(e) Issues in the Bad Faith Cases (see Paragraph 16 above).

Common Issues on Appeal, and Administrative Concerns Regarding Identity of Parties and Appearance of Counsel

24. All of the Notices of Appeal seek review of the Rule 54(b) Judgments which, in turn, are predicated on the Opinion and Order and the Supplemental Order. The Section 546(e) Issues were identified as issues on appeal in each of the Appeals.

25. Upon the opening in this Court of the Trustee Matters and SIPC Matters, as well as the Additional Trustee Matters and the Additional SIPC Matters, the only parties to the appeals identified on the dockets maintained by the Clerk of this Court were those individuals and/or entities listed as having appeared in the Fishman Action, the Blue Star Action, and the Master Proceeding, through notices of appearance in the District Court prior to the filing of the Notices of Appeal. Many parties and counsel in the Eligible Actions were not properly listed as parties affected by the Rule 54(b) Judgments, and therefore are not currently listed on the Court's dockets in the Appeals. Accordingly, in addition to consolidating the appeals as requested herein, the Court should provide for all parties to the affected actions to be identified as appellees, and provision made for their counsel to appear (subject to the Court's rules for the admission of attorneys to practice), and to facilitate the filing of papers and appearances by such parties and counsel.

26. Because the Appeals affect hundreds of actions withdrawn from the Bankruptcy Court to the District Court, consolidation could result in hundreds of appellee briefs filed in the Consolidated Appeal. Joint Movants submit, therefore, as further explained below, that for purposes of judicial administration and conservation of resources, it is appropriate for the Court to grant other case management relief described below including, among other things, limitations on the number of appellee briefs, and the formation of a liaison committee to facilitate communications among Defendants-Appellees and the coordination of filing of papers in the Consolidated Appeal.

REQUESTED RELIEF

27. In order to promote the prosecution and defense of all of the currently pending appeals in a prompt, coordinated manner, as contemplated and intended by the parties and by the District Court in the Consolidation Orders, to conserve the judicial resources of this Court and to foster administrative efficiencies while facilitating due and timely consideration of the matters in issue, the instant Motion seeks consolidation of the Appeals into a single "consolidated appeal," along with the entry of additional case management procedures designed to foster the effective administration and disposition of the consolidated appeal. The requested relief includes the following:

- (i) Pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 3(b)(2), Case Nos. 12-2497, -2500, -2557, -2616, -3422, -3440, -3582 and -3585 should be consolidated with and under the caption for the first appeal filed by the Trustee from the Master Proceeding in the District Court – which bears Case No. 12-2557 in this Court (the “Consolidated Appeal”) – and the caption should be revised appropriately, as proposed in Exhibit A;

- (ii) All Defendants-Appellees who are parties to the appeals and are listed as such in Exhibit B accompanying this motion should be added as parties to the Consolidated Appeal;
- (iii) The briefing schedule for the Consolidated Appeal should be the schedule currently set by order of this Court in Case No. 12-2557 (ECF No. 90);
- (iv) The District Court dockets and their contents in the underlying actions may be utilized to the extent that this Court deems the same to be pertinent and necessary for purposes of the Consolidated Appeal even if such parts of the record are not included in the appendix, pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 30(a)(2);
- (v) To minimize duplication and burden to the Court in connection with the administration and disposition of the Consolidated Appeal: (i) the number of briefs to be filed on behalf of Defendants-Appellees in the consolidated appeal should be limited to a total of sixteen, as set out in the proposed order attached as Exhibit A; and (ii) the Liaison Committee should be organized to facilitate communications among counsel for the Defendants-Appellees and, to the extent practicable, to minimize the number of notices of appearance required to be filed, provided that the members of the committee would not be deemed to represent any parties other than their respective clients, and, the Liaison Committee and its members would not owe any duties of any kind or nature either to any Defendants-Appellees (other than a member’s own client(s)) or the attorneys for any other Defendants-Appellees; and further provided that all communications and documents (including drafts of motions or briefs) exchanged between and among the members of the Liaison Committee and any of the Defendants-Appellees and/or the Defendants-Appellees’ respective attorneys will be deemed to be privileged communications and/or work product, as the case may be, subject to a joint interest privilege; and
- (vi) No counsel for any Defendants-Appellees in any Decided Action, Withdrawn 546(e) Action, Eligible Action (including any Stipulated Matter) or Inadvertently Omitted Action, and no pro se party in any such action, would be prohibited from filing papers in the Consolidated Appeal (subject to the limitation established by this Order on the number of appellees’ briefs permitted to be filed). For purposes of receiving a document from counsel for a party who has not formally appeared in the Consolidated Appeal or from a pro se party: (i) such papers should be submitted to the Court only through its “e-box” (agencycases@ca2.uscourts.gov) pursuant to Circuit Court Rule 25.2, and all such papers shall bear the caption of the Consolidated Appeal; and (ii) any attorney filing such papers should comply with the Rules of this Court regarding the admission of attorneys to practice before it and file a notice of appearance in the Consolidated Appeal at the same time as the first filing of papers by such attorney in the Consolidated Appeal, through the Court's e-box.

The order would specifically provide that the relief is without prejudice to any party's substantive rights.

ARGUMENT

The Appeals Should Be Consolidated and the Other Requested Administrative Relief Should Be Granted

The Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure “encourage consolidation of appeals whenever feasible.” Fed. R. App. P. 3, Advisory Committee Note. Consolidation of cases serves “the goal of fostering judicial economy. . . .” 20 Moore's Federal Practice – Civil § 303.41[1] (2012); see also Chem One, Ltd. v. M/V Rickmers Genoa, 660 F.3d 626, 642 (2d Cir. 2011) (“a court should consider both equity and judicial economy” for purposes of consolidation)); Malcolm v. Nat'l Gypsum Co., 995 F.2d 346, 350 (2d Cir. 1993) (consolidation is favored when it serves judicial economy and the interest of justice). Further, when multiple appeals arise out of “a common origin . . . and are taken from a single judgment disposing of all issues” they should be “consolidated for hearing at the same time . . . and should not be separated for hearing or final determination.” Fuller Brush Co. v. Northern States Power Co., 261 F.2d 340, 342 (8th Cir. 1958); see also Allison v. Bank One-Denver, 289 F.3d 1223, 1230 n.1 (10th Cir. 2002) (consolidating appeals that share “identical facts and a common record”).

The Appeals arise from the same operative factual and legal bases – transfers made by Madoff Securities to customers who are not alleged to have lacked good faith (and subsequent transfers from those customers to others), and the effect of Section 546(e) on the Trustee's avoidance claims. The Rule 54(b) Judgments are substantively identical and all arise from the Opinion and Supplemental Opinion, and the substantially identical Consolidation Orders granting the Rule 54(b) certifications of the District Court. Consolidation and the related administrative relief is appropriate to promote the administration and disposition of the Appeals in a prompt, coordinated manner through a single appeal under a single master docket, as contemplated and intended by the parties and by the District Court in the Consolidation Orders. Such relief, moreover, will conserve the judicial resources of this Court while facilitating due and timely consideration of the matters in issue without prejudice to the substantive rights of the interested parties. See Rodriguez v. Weprin, 116 F.3d 62, 66 (2d Cir. 1997) (discussing a “court’s inherent power to control its docket”); MacAlister v. Guterman, 263 F.2d 65, 68 (2d Cir. 1958) (discussing “the broad inherent authority of every court ‘to control the disposition of the causes on its docket with economy of time and effort for itself, for counsel and for litigants.’”) (quoting Landis v. North American Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254-55 (1936) (Cardozo, J.)).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Joint Movants respectfully request that the Court grant the requested consolidation of appeals and related case management relief, substantially in the form accompanying this motion, and grant such other relief as may be just and proper.

The Motion is GRANTED.¹ Accordingly:

1. Pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 3(b)(2), the following cases shall be, and hereby are, consolidated under No. 12-2557 (the “Consolidated Appeal”): No. 12-2497 (including No. 12-2500 previously consolidated with it); No. 12-2557 (including No. 12-2616 previously consolidated with it); and No. 12-3422 (including Nos. 12-3440, 12-3582 and 12-3585 previously consolidated with it).

2. The briefing schedule for the Consolidated Appeal should be the schedule currently set by order of this Court entered in No. 12-2557 on September 6, 2012 (ECF No. 90).

3. The full caption of the Consolidated Appeal shall be as shown on the attached Exhibit A. The short title of the Consolidated Appeal shall be In re Madoff Securities.

5. The cases listed in the attached Exhibit B are consolidated with the Consolidated Appeal. The defendants listed in those cases are appellees in the Consolidated Appeal. By this reference to Exhibit B the appellees are added to the docket of the Consolidated Appeal.

¹ Capitalized terms not defined in this Order shall have the meanings given in the Motion.

6. The District Court dockets and their contents in the underlying actions may be utilized to the extent that this Court deems the same to be pertinent and necessary for purposes of the Consolidated Appeal even if such parts of the record are not included in the appendix, pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 30(a)(2).

7. The defendants-appellees listed in Exhibit B (collectively, the "Defendants-Appellees") may file not more than a total of sixteen briefs in the Consolidated Appeal, and such briefs are allocated as follows; (a) one brief for each of the four cases listed in Paragraph 5 of the Motion as comprising the Decided Actions for a maximum total of four briefs; (b) one brief for each of the two cases listed in Paragraph 9 of the Motion as comprising the Withdrawn 546(e) Actions, for a maximum total of two briefs; and (c) for the Eligible Actions including the Stipulated Matters listed in Paragraph 14 of the Motion and the Inadvertently Omitted Actions listed in Paragraph 17 of the Motion, not more than a total of ten briefs allocated as counsel in those actions may determine. To further the goals of this case management order Defendants-Appellees shall use reasonable efforts in good faith to avoid duplication in the submission of briefs. Not later than ten calendar days before the date on which the appellees' briefs are required to be filed in the Consolidated Appeal, counsel who will file briefs allocated to the Eligible Actions (including the Stipulated Matters) and Inadvertently Omitted Actions shall contact the Clerk of the Court, in writing, to identify themselves as the filers of such briefs and shall provide their names, addresses and contact information, and the names of their clients-Defendants.

8. No party's substantive rights shall be prejudiced by this Order.

Court only through its “e-box” (agencycases@ca2.uscourts.gov) pursuant to Circuit Local Rule 25.2, and all such papers shall bear the caption of the Consolidated Appeal; and (ii) any attorney filing such papers shall comply with the Rules of this Court regarding the admission of attorneys to practice before it and file a notice of appearance in the Consolidated Appeal at the same time as the first filing of papers by such attorney in the Consolidated Appeal, through the Court’s e-box.

15. The Clerk is directed to amend the docket to conform with this Order.
